Dulles Says Egyptian Proposal Does Not Solve Issue

LIKE TO TALK IN PITTSBURGH THIS EVENING

Washington, (AP)—President Eisenhower wings into Pittsburgh today for a campaign speech billed as a reply to what an aide called the "misstatements" that have been made in this campaign by the opposition.

Eisenhower was scheduled to take off on this fourth brief campaign foray with press secretary James C. Hagerty claiming that private polls being made for the White House show that the chief executive is "going to be elected."

Hagerty said that private samplings such as these showed the Republicans would win in 1948—when they didn't—so he said he doesn't put "complete stock in them."

"I would much rather put stock in votes than in polls any day," he said.

Eisenhower speaks at Hunt Armory in Pittsburgh. The address will be carried by the NBC radio and television networks.

It is scheduled for 9 to 9:30 p. m. EDT.

Questioned about the subject of the speech, Hagerty said Eisenhower will answer factually what Hagerty termed some of the opposition's misstatements.

In response to a question, he said some of these were made by the Democratic presidential nominee, Adlai E. Stevenson.

This is just a one-day, one-stop political sortie into Pennsylvania, a vital state with 32 electoral votes and a tough Senate race. Democrats are hopeful of taking the Keystone State.

In advance of tonight's address, Eisenhower will confer at the Penn Sheraton Hotel with Sen. James Duff, a Republican trying for reelection, and with other party leaders. He will fly back to Washington immediately after the speech.

On Friday, in a half-hour program over the NBC radio-TV networks, Eisenhower will take part in a sort of press conference, minus reporters.

Kefauver Has Sore Throat and Cold For Eastern Visit

Vineland, N. J., (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver said today President Eisenhower took an "unprecedented action" in ordering the Atomic Energy Commission to negotiate the long-debated and now cancelled Dixon-Yates contract.

"This episode was worse than mixing politics in our atomic energy program," he asserted in a statement. "It involves out and out corruption of the independent character of the Atomic Energy Commission."

The Democratic vice-presidential nominee issued the statement as he made ready to set out on a 100-mile motorcade through poultry-farming country in southern New Jersey.

His major speech was planned for Vineland at a five-county rally. He turned up with a sore throat and cold yesterday in Delaware on the first day of his new tour, but said he was certain he would get over it quickly.

Jaycee Committee Is Making Plans for Hallowe'en Parade

Frank W. McHenry, 109½ Central avenue, has been appointed general chairman of the Warren Jaycee-sponsored annual Hallowe'en Parade, it was announced today by Jaycee President Robert Geiger.

This event, which is another community participation project of the local Jaycee Chapter, is scheduled for Wednesday, October 31, Hallowe'en night, and the committee, under the direction of Chairman McHenry, is already making plans for a gala affair.

Prizes for outstanding costumes will be awarded within various age groups, and the traditional cider and doughnuts will be served to the participants. Further announcements concerning parade schedule and eligibility will be issued in the near future.

Chairman McHenry, who is employed by the local Sylvania plant, announced the following sub-committee chairmen appointments: Publicity, John Stachowiak; food, vic Gustanson; awards, Dennis

Semi-Confirmation of a New or Remodeled High School Building Has Nothing To Do With the Site

Bums Glad To Get Back To Ebbets Field

BULLETIN
Brooklyn (AP)—Bob Turley, a fireballing right-hander who has been even more erratic than Don Larsen in regular season, was named as the New York Yankee pitcher to face Brooklyn's Clem Labine in today's sixth World Series game at Ebbets Field.

Manager Casey Stengel finally decided on Turley after delaying until the Yankees took the field to get ready for batting practice.

Stengel said he would make no plans for the seventh game pitcher until he knew he needed one.

Manager Walter Alton said Don Newcombe — 27-7 — was his probable pitcher for tomorrow if a seventh game is necessary. Alton made no changes in his starting lineup, except the pitcher.

By JOE REICHLER
Brooklyn (AP)—Their backs to the wall, just as has been the case all year, the Brooklyn Dodgers today were staking their World Series hopes on friendly Ebbets Field.

Beaten for the third consecutive time at Yankee Stadium yesterday, 2-0, in a history making perfect game performance by unpredictable Don Larsen of the New York Yankees, the Dodgers found themselves trailing 3 games to 2.

Manager Walter Alton turned to his ace relief pitcher Clem Labine rather than to his 27-game winner Don Newcombe to keep the Dodgers' faint series hopes alive. Yankee pilot Casey Stengel, in a spot where he can gamble, selected Johnny Kucks, his 18-game winner.

This was Labine's first starting assignment after relieving eight times in three series. In his one relief effort during this series, he yielded one hit and one unearned run in a two-inning relief job in the third game. He started only three games during the entire season. (Turn to Page Eight)

Girl Riding in Car With Fiance Instantly Killed

Sharon (AP)—An 18-year-old girl, riding in an auto driven by her fiance, was killed yesterday when the auto crashed against a utility pole on a sharp curve.

Police said Minnie Belle Connors of Farrell was crushed between the car and pole. Her body came to rest 43 feet away.

Officers identified the driver as Louis Savage, 23, of Sharon. He told police he was to marry Miss Connors next Christmas.

Area Joint Board Receives Figures From Two Architects; Routine Business Is Discussed

A new or remodeled high school building for Warren was given a left-handed confirmation at a meeting last night of Joint Committee of Warren Area Joint School Board.

School superintendent, Dr. Carl E. Whipple, read a note from Dr. Harold Martin, Director of Division of School Buildings, Department of Public Instruction, to the effect that "we may assume that a new building is approved as a report of inspection is not sent to the local district except where additional information is needed, they anticipate no need for additional information."

Melvin Keller, school board president, pointed out that no written assurance had been received from Harrisburg. The semi-confirmation has nothing to do with the site of a new or remodeled building.

Dr. Whipple noted that the state had acted upon application 821. Warren's application for high school funds is 1,001.

Also presented at the meeting were revised figures from the two architectural firms which have prepared cost estimates on the three sites currently under consideration for a new high school building.

Space does not permit publication of complete financial statements today but the Times-Mirror will publish Wednesday a full run-down of comparative costs of the present high school site, Swick site and Memorial Field.

Considering the tax burden, the only economically feasible plan would appear to be remodeling and adding to the present structure at the corner of Market street and Second avenue. With per capita taxes already at the top figure allowed by law, the additional tax (Turn to Page Eight)

Permission Is Still Sought To Destroy Hoxsey Cancer Pills

Pittsburgh (AP)—The government was set today to call the first witness at a U. S. District Court trial in which the government seeks permission to destroy a half million pills seized from the Hoxsey Cancer Clinic at Portage, Pa.

Asst. U. S. Atty. John A. DeMay Jr. said that Sidney J. Heinreck, president of the Testgar Co., distributor of the pills, was the witness to be called to testify before Judge John L. Miller and a jury of six men and six women.

The government seized the pills in March 1955, claiming the containers were misbranded in stating that the pills were effective in the treatment of cancer.

The clinic uses a cancer treatment developed by Harry M. Hoxsey, a Dallas, Tex., naturopath. Both the U. S. Food and Drug Administration and the American Medical Association have branded the treatment as worthless.

Judge Miller said the trial may last four to six weeks. The government said it will call at least 100 witnesses, including physicians and technicians doing cancer research.

Hoxsey, subpoenaed as a witness, said he is prepared to call 100 persons to prove his claim that the treatment has cured cancer patients.

NOTED SURGEON DIES
Pittsburgh (AP)—Funeral services will be held Thursday for Dr. Richard Behan, 77, a former governor of the American College of Surgeons. He died yesterday following a brief illness. Dr. Behan was a member of the staff at St. Joseph's Hospital. He also was a former president of the Allegheny County Medical Society.

Freezing Weather and Snow Flurries Coming

Pittsburgh (AP)—The U. S. Weather Bureau early today issued a warning of freezing temperatures for Western Pennsylvania with snow flurries likely in the northern section.

The forecast calls for a few showers or possible snow flurries in the northern section and a chance of showers early tonight in the southern portion with the temperature ranging from 25 to the low 30s.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

It was announced at a meeting of Joint Committee of Warren Area Joint School Board last evening that Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke of Pittsburgh, superintendent of Methodist churches in this district, has been secured to speak at the 1957 Commencement Exercises of Warren High School.

Railroad Trainmen Protest Reduction In Pennsy Schedule

Harrisburg (AP)—An official of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen said today proposed east-west train schedule changes by the Pennsylvania Railroad would mean "a drastic reduction" in service.

W. G. Sutton, Harrisburg, chairman of the union's district grievance committee, told the Public Utility Commission "gloomy talk (by the railroad) has destroyed public confidence in passenger service."

"I believe in passenger business and have confidence in it," he added.

Sutton is also a conductor on trains between Harrisburg and Philadelphia.

Harris J. Latta, attorney for the PRR, challenged Sutton's testimony on the ground the union official is not a qualified economist nor financier.

The commission is hearing a proposal by the railroad to make a number of service changes including withdrawal of the Philadelphia Night Express and continuation of a Philadelphia-Harrisburg night train to Pittsburgh.

FARM PRODUCTS PROGRAM

Harrisburg (AP)—A four-pronged promotional program of Pennsylvania farm products will be mapped at a Nov. 8 meeting of representatives of all phases of food production, processing and distribution. Gov. Leader called for the meeting yesterday to set up a marketing advisory committee.

Gainesville, Tex. (AP)—Fire roared through two warehouses today, destroying 7,500 bales of government-owned cotton worth an estimated $1,125,000.

ADLAI CARRIES HIS CAMPAIGN TO MONTANA

By WARREN ROGERS JR.
Great Falls, Mont. (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson said today the Eisenhower administration has "scrapped" a 50-year bipartisan tradition of "conserving the nation's parks and forests."

Instead, he said, the GOP regime has permitted public lands to "be invaded by and given away to selfish private interests."

In a speech prepared for a one-hour rally at Gore Field, the Democratic nominee said: "The Eisenhower administration acts as if this generation of Americans were the last."

"I want a government that will honor its obligations to generations yet unborn."

"We are shaping a federal conservation policy—or a federal giveaway policy—today that will mold our children's lives."

From his Libertyville, Ill., farm yesterday, Stevenson released the third in his series of "major affirmations" of the policies he would follow in the White House. This one dealt with health.

He called for a federal aid program of loans and grants to underwrite a voluntary hospital and medical care system which would be handled privately and administered by the states. Its aim would be health insurance for all, regardless of ability to pay.

This was the key plank in a four-part set of goals. The other three were increased funds for medical research, stepped-up training of medical personnel, and more building of hospitals.

In his Great Falls speech, Stevenson chided Republicans about their stand on conservation.

Seeks To Escape a Prison Term Meted Out 19 Years Ago

Pittsburgh (AP)—Frank Rutkowski, 38, of Pittsburgh, was free on $1,000 bond today in his fight to avoid a prison term meted out 19 years ago.

Rutkowski was sentenced in 1937 to a three-month Allegheny County Workhouse term on an aggravated assault and battery charge.

He appealed to State Superior Court but failed to follow through with the appeal so the court quashed it. Because Rutkowski failed to pay a $3 Superior Court prothonotary's fee, the records of his case remained in the prothonotary's files and Rutkowski was never called in to serve his jail term.

The bizarre case was discovered several days ago after two similar cases had been uncovered. Rutkowski's attorney asked the court to void the jail sentence because "justice so long delayed would be injustice." Judge Loran Lewis refused but agreed to free Rutkowski on bond pending disposition of the case. Rutkowski spent several hours in jail before he raised bond.

Margaret Sullivan Fails To Appear for TV Show

New York (AP)—The show did not go on last night for husky-voiced actress Margaret Sullivan. The 45-year-old stage and screen veteran failed to show up for the starring role in a CBS-TV Studio One drama.

Later her husband said she was ill and in a hospital. But her exact whereabouts remained a mystery.

Miss Sullivan was to have played the lead in "The Pilot," the story of Sister Aquinas, a Roman Catholic nun and educator.

When the actress did not appear CBS replaced the scheduled show with a film of a previous Studio One drama — "Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners."

SWAPS BREAKS DOWN

Camden, N. J. (AP)—Swaps, one of the world's greatest race horses broke down during an exercise run at Garden State Park today but x-rays showed no break of a leg bone as was at first feared. Dr. George R. Palmer Jr., a veterinarian, said that six x-rays were taken after the famed horse was removed from the track in an ambulance to its stall. The veterinarian said the horse probably would be out of action for at least four months.

Warren Resident Prepares To Operate Ambulance Service; Council Meeting Highlights

A Warren resident who firmly grasped both horns of the community's ambulance service dilemma met with Borough Council at its regular meeting last night and received the unanimous approval of Council's special ambulance committee to begin his service.

Keith Nulph of 109 Market street told the special committee members that he had just purchased two up-to-date ambulances in Buffalo, models being a 1949 and 1950. One vehicle is red and cream, the other maroon and cream. The intended operator reported he spent five years in the Navy during World War II as a pharmacist's mate and was discharged with a chief's rating. His son-in-law, also a pharmacist's mate and currently with the Navy, expects to join Nulph following his discharge in a few months.

Presently employed as a forestry foreman with Pennsylvania Highway Department, Nulph said he would continue that job, at least for the time being. Nulph was brought to Council meeting by Fourth Ward Councilman, Pete Juliano.

Warren E. Miller, Council's special ambulance committee chairman, offered a resolution that licensing requirements for ambulances be set up. Burgess William E. Rice questioned the borough's legality in the matter and Borough Solicitor S. Knox Harper was asked to look into the matter. It was stressed that Council had no authority to franchise any particular ambulance service.

Frightened Boy Spends Night In Woods After Slaying Father

Cleveland, (AP)—A frightened 14-year-old boy walked out of a woods early today, signaled police with his flashlight and surrendered, eight hours after he shot and killed his father.

Robert Zavalnak left in the woods, with his sleeping bag, the rifle he used to fire three bullets into his father, Joseph J., 42, after an argument during the supper hour last night at their home in suburban Brecksville.

State Highway Patrolman Clarence Dragi and Brecksville Constable Walter Zimlich, to whom the boy surrendered, recovered the weapon.

After firing a bullet into his father's head and two more shots at the man lay dying on the kitchen floor, Robert sped away in the family's station wagon, leaving three notebook pages of a "confession" and "last will and testament."

Robert crashed the car into a utility pole and four parked cars before he abandoned it and fled on foot.

Mrs. Frances Zavalnak, 38, the victim's wife, first learned of the shooting when her 11-year-old daughter, Nancy, telephoned her at work in downtown Cleveland.

In his "confession" the boy said he "hated to kill, but I had to." He said his father had tried to stab him with a knife "and I went to my bedroom and got my gun and shot myself a couple of times in the head."

To the left of his signature, the boy wrote: "I plead guilty but insane."

Phenix Furniture "Island" Property Has New Owners

The firm of Nelson & Ellberg has announced its purchase of the "Island" property occupied by Phenix Furniture Company.

Ernest Ellberg, co-owner of the firm, has stated that present plans for the site call for razing the largest of the buildings and filling in what remains of the old mill race between the island and back of the buildings fronting on Pennsylvania avenue from Ficketts Hardware to the Vets Club.

Eventual plans could make the island an off-street parking area, with a business district access walk rising from the island through Soldiers and Sailors Park just east of Hickory street bridge.

J. W. Newmaker and W. S. Reed began a planing mill on the island in 1892. Floyd H. Newmaker is owner of Phenix Furniture Company which makes its present business office headquarters at 115 South Carver street.

The island property of Phenix Furniture Company has been used mainly for storage during the past ten years, with some log peeling done there until early this year.

Local Industries Are Being Solicited in Chest Campaign

Forty-nine local industrial and business firms are cooperating this week with the 1956 Community Chest campaign by conducting employee solicitation in their plants either individually or through a consolidated welfare fund. In the 16 firms which use the welfare fund idea, employees who belong to the plan are not solicited but receive their Community Chest window sticker and red feather pin signifying that they have already contributed to the Community Chest.

The Industrial division quota is approximately one-half of the total campaign goal of $66,500 which is needed by the ten member agencies. (Turn to Page Eight)

Many Penn'a Judges Following Precedent Set by Local Jurist

Judge Roy L. Carson of Washington County took the opposite stand, saying:

"We have taken the view that people should not be molested in the courtroom if it were demonstrated to us that this would not be taken in the courthouse."

Judge Robert E. McCrery of Beaver County said, "on an experimental basis we would consider permitting photographs in the courtroom if it were demonstrated to us that this would not disturb the dignity of the court or cause confusion."

Four other judges who said they would be willing to experiment with courtroom photography were J. Frank Graff of Armstrong County, Thomas F. Lansberry of Somerset County, Thomas L. Hoban of Lackawanna County and J. Inghram Hook of Green County.

Those who said they are opposed to courtroom photos were Judges William H. McNaugher, Allegheny County; Clyde S. Shumaker, Butler County; and W. Russell Carr, Fayette County.

STILL FAVORS THE BRITISH-FRENCH PLAN

United Nations, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today there is little chance of settling the Suez problem so long as it is possible for any nation to use the vital waterway as an instrument of its national policy.

Dulles told the U.N. Security Council that this is the heart of the problem and that the first step should be an acceptance by all parties of the principle that a system should be set up to ensure against any such action.

He did not flatly reject a proposal made by Egypt yesterday for the establishment of a U.N. negotiating body to work out a system of cooperation for the operation of the canal. He called the Egyptian move "constructive," but he indicated this did not go far enough.

Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov quickly made it clear he would not accept Dulles' statement that the canal must be "insulated" from politics of any one country. Shepilov told an impromptu news conference this actually was a proposal for internationalizing the waterway and that he could not accept it. He said politics would appear in any international body organized to run the canal.

Dulles stood firmly behind a British-French proposal which called for negotiations on the basis of national control of the canal. He (Turn to Page Eight)

Russian Arrives in London With Child Stolen From Mother

London (AP)—A Russian spirit-ing his American-born daughter to the Soviet Union arrived in London today closely shepherded by two Russian officials. They went to the Soviet embassy.

Apparently the way now was clear for Alexis Chwastov, the father, to take 2½-year-old Tanya to Russia despite objections of her Detroit mother. But one newspaper, the News Chronicle, predicted:

"Father and child are likely to be the subject of a three-power conference — between officials of Britain, America and Russia — to decide the baby's future."

Chwastov, 38 and slightly built, took Tanya aboard the liner Queen Mary in New York and during the departure of the ship managed to avoid a search by U. S. immigration officers.

The American authorities, acting on a complaint of the child's mother said Chwastov may have been coerced into returning to Russia by Soviet officials. His 92-year-old mother is still in Russia.

In Detroit distraught Mrs. Helena Dieczok, divorced wife of Chwastov and mother of pretty little Tanya, had pleaded without success with Chwastov to give the child to her. Under American law Tanya is an American citizen because she was born in Philadelphia. Russian law recognizes her as a Russian.

Warren Resident

Other highlight of Council meeting came when Councilman Miller, head of the Public Service Committee, said for the fifth meeting that he had no report. He enlarged upon this by saying that he had not received one complaint from any borough resident about the proposed gas rate increase of Pennsylvania Gas Company, which is presently engaged in a series of hearings before the Public Utilities Commission in Erie.

Councilmen Juliano and John Carbon said they had received complaints, Carbon noting that the increase was probably due to the colder weather and higher gas bills. He said it was his philosophy that a councilman should not wait for complaints before acting.

Council President Leon Lashans asked that the Public Service Committee meet with Borough Manager George Geracimos during the month and have a report at the next meeting, November 12th.

Councilman Glen Patchen, head of Public Safety Committee, introduced a resolution to the effect that the Pennsylvania Highway Department look into the need for a traffic light at the corner of East street and Pennsylvania avenue, west. Juliano cast the only dissenting vote as the measure was approved, 14-1.

Patchen pointed out that eight accidents had occurred at the intersection within the past three years, and four pedestrians were injured. The light, if installed, would be on a "progressive system" with other Pennsylvania avenue lights.

A similar resolution calling for a traffic light at the corner of Morrison street and Pennsylvania avenue, west, was put off for a month for more study.

Councilman Paul Yagge, chairman of Buildings and Grounds committee, introduced and had accepted a motion authorizing the borough secretary to advertise for bids for a new borough scale. Estimated cost will be in the neighborhood of $6,000. It was pointed out that higher fines for overloaded trucks could return a substantial part of the money to Warren. The present borough scale on the East Side is out of commission.

Unanimous approval was given an ordinance authorizing the proper borough officials to grant a right of way to Warren Water Company from their proposed tank on Tanner Hill across borough property to Liberty street above Sixth. The right of way granted was 20 feet wide.

Borough manager Geracimos reported that a form was being prepared for Indian Hollow and Glade Run area residents to fill out stating their flood losses over the past 20 years. Geracimos said the state requested the information before it would go ahead with costly permanent flood protection plans which will total about $250,000.

A beautifully worded resolution by Attorney W. Scott Calderwood was passed unanimously, granting permission to Ernest Blair, Margaret Blair and Texas Company to erect a gas station sign at the northeast corner of Union street and Pennsylvania avenue.

Because of a wide approach, placing the sign in what is now part of the street, the special resolution was needed. Insurance in the amount of $100,000 will be carried by the gas station.

Yagge noted that the item of matching funds for Warren airport improvements was under study by the Building and Lands Committee Finance committee chairman, M. E. Emery, stated the 1957 budget was under study and partially prepared. He said a series of meetings was planned with the various Council committee heads.

Merritt Babcock was appointed as a Warren Fire Department probationary fireman, effective May 1, 1956. Wayne G. Hansen was appointed a provisional fireman, effective August 18, 1956.

Past Presidents of I.M.A. Are Honored At October Meeting

Unrehearsed comedy and a highly informative address featured the first meeting for this season of the Industrial Management Association sponsored by the YMCA and held at the Glade Township Fire Hall last evening with almost 100 members and guests present. Following a fine baked ham dinner served by the Auxiliary, the Association president, Floyd W. Reed of Paramount Furniture Company, presented the song leading combination of Chris A. Pepke as the leader with Lynn Keller at the piano and the comedy of the evening was under way and the fun carried on through a presentation of past presidents' ribbons to all past presidents by Hilmar A. Roos, who did a splendid job pinch-hitting on a moment's notice in this honoring of the presidents of previous years.

The following past presidents were present, starting with the second president of the club in 1936: George Juline, Paul Ristau, John Beidne, Hilmar A. Roos, C. Ray Lewis, Harry E. Cooper, Merritt Rohlin, Wade E. Barre, Richard W. Swanson, Melbourne Karlson and Chris A. Pepke.

An entertainment feature of the program introduced by Willis Tickner, was an accordion duet by Russell Dase and Guy Smith, students of Mrs. Engstrom's Music Studio.

Toastmaster Floyd Reed then called up the vice president of the Association, Cleon L. Douglas, of Sylvania Electric Products Co., to introduce the speaker, who was Richard C. Schumacher, Division Personnel Manager of the same company who spoke on the subject, "Front Sharning Plans". After tracing the history of these plans, Mr. Schumacher presented in a very interesting and informative way the philosophy and goals of the plans, then told in detail of the present Sylvania plan.

The invocation for the dinner was given by Dan Walton, general secretary of the YMCA.

Youngville Club Giving Hallowe'en And Skate Parties

Youngville — At the regular meeting of Pre-School Mothers' Club, members voted to give their annual Hallowe'en party for pre-school children, with Mrs. Eileen as chairman; also to hold a skating party October 13. Doors will be open at 10:00 p. m. to adults 18 and over, proceeds to go to the Kindergarten.

Twenty members were in attendance at the meeting to hear Mr. Burgess, psychologist for Warren county, talk on pre-school children. Concluding, refreshments were served by a committee composed of Valda Papalia, Dorothy Lauffenberger, and Mabel Horner.

Orange Circle of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Gurney Ball for a tureen luncheon, business and social session, the hostess conducting devotions. Project for next meeting is to make 12-inch square percale bags for Navajo Indians in New Mexico, who use them to hold treasured small possessions. Games were played and Bernice Chappel was in charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fish and daughter, Mrs. Wayne Cassatt, motored to Union City and, on the return trip, called on friends in Spring Creek. ## District Hay Show Planned Thursday At Titusville YMCA

The Agricultural Extension Service of the Pennsylvania State University and various supporting organizations are sponsoring a District Hay Show, reports Chas. Stanislaw, assistant county agent. This Hay Show will be held Thursday, October 11, in the YMCA building in Titusville.

No entry fee will be charged but entries close at 10:30 a. m. Thursday. Each exhibit must have an entry blank attached to it. These blanks are available at the Extension Office. Hay exhibit must consist of a bale section approximately 5 inches thick or an equivalent amount if cut from hay in the mow.

All first place winners will be eligible to exhibit hay at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show in Harrisburg in January. Winners of first, second, and third places in each class will be entitled to a chemical analysis of their hay exhibited—free of charge.

In addition to the hay shown an excellent program has been prepared. Beginning at 10:45 a. m. agronomy specialists from the Pennsylvania State University will speak on the many phases of grassland farming—from establishing the new seedlings to the feeding value of the harvested hay crop.

STREAMLINED DEMONSTRATION

Most Americans can't wait to get a gander at the new 1957 automobiles.

Well, you can imagine the minor sensation caused by the appearance of a new Ford on the streets of Moscow two days before its scheduled unveiling here.

The Russian man in the street really got himself an eyeful of a car the likes of which he doesn't even dare dream about owning. The best Russian car looks like a 1939 Packard.

The Ford was the first '57 model to come off the assembly line in Dearborn, Mich., and it's one of eight Fords which were sold to the State Department for $1 each to be used by the U. S. embassy in Moscow.

Working closely with State, Ford secretly crated this first model, flew it to Helsinki and then sent it by rail to the Kremlin. The Reds never had an inkling of what was up.

Idea behind the scheme was to show the Russians the kind of products that come from the country which the Communists so often call decadent.

Sure the Ford Motor Co. came in for some good publicity, but so did the United States. And the State Department had the good sense to accept the offer and help carry it through.

For our money it was a slick job for the United States from start to finish. And for certain it is an operation the Reds can't blame on one of their favorite targets—General Motors.

FABLE FOR FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Here's a fable for Fire Prevention Week: Fitchburg, Massachusetts—Fire snuffed out the lives of 11,475 men, women and children here and severely burned or disfigured for life 30,000 others. Total population is 43,000.

No, it didn't happen in Fitchburg, Mass., or in any other city or town in the United States—not at once.

But it did happen in these United States last year—in cities, towns, villages and hamlets from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Rio Grande to the Canadian border; in a 12-month period.

The figures are correct—11,475 dead by fires, 30,000 more injured; 31 dead by fires every day. These are National Fire Protection Association estimates.

Speculate on the possibility of a city of 43,000 being swept by fire, suffering 12,000 deaths, 30,000 injuries. A horrible catastrophe.

Is it any worse if the 12,000 needless deaths are spread over 365 days? Do 31 fatalities per day by fire lessen the shock and the waste?

BIRTHDAY CAKES

Even the Democrats are being asked to join in the big birthday celebration for President Eisenhower this year.

For example, Republicans in Nassau County, N. Y., have cooked up a nonpartisan cake-baking contest. But there's a catch.

Any Democratic lady who submits an entry must stick to the official recipe issued by the Republican National Committee all over the country.

It calls for a chocolate job with white frosting which is the President's favorite, according to Mamie. The victor gets $100 and her cake goes to the White House.

Like the tune says, "If I'd known you were comin' I'd have baked a cake" is probably the best policy for gals who don't want to follow the GOP recipe.

This is the week for industrial workers in the borough to make pledges to the annual Red Feather Community Chest Fund, and from all reports the solicitation is progressing in commendable manner, thanks to excellent cooperation of plant managers.

The much-discussed ambulance service in Warren seems to be ironing itself out in a manner that should be most satisfactory to everyone!

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment.—Ezekiel 18:16.

Charity is a principle of prevailing love to God and good will to men which effectually inclines one endowed with it to glorify God and to do good to others.—Cruden.

In Troubled Waters

Here and There

It's a pleasure to give the Bear Lake Fire Department "Pump Fund" a plug by reminding that a big Bar-B-Q chicken dinner is planned at the Bear Lake Fire Hall October 26, six to nine p. m., to be served by Ed Schuyler, New York State Champion. Entertainment will be provided by "The Dunitigs," Jack and Gertrude, well known WJTN radio stars. By way of reminder the Bear Lake Firemen have just completed building a second fire truck, a tanker, which holds 850 gallons of water—but it has no pump. The purpose of this Bar-B-Q is to raise money to buy a pump. Additional information may be obtained from Fire Chief Gerald Crosby.

Another news release that will doubtless interest many readers comes from the New Castle Stamp Club, announcing the seventh annual Stamp Exhibition Saturday and Sunday, October 20 and 21, at the Elks Club in that city, corner North Mill and Falls St. The exhibition will consist of frames in the usual classification, entered by the adult and junior members of the club. All stamp collectors, as well as the general public are cordially invited to attend the exhibit. There will be no admission charge. The course will be composed of an outstanding group of stamp dealers from the area, many of the same ones who have been at the previous exhibits. Durward A. Newhard is president, and Dr. J. W. Waliga, exhibit chairman.

A Harrisburg dispatch, omitted Monday because of the rush of other copy, says the Forests and Waters Department is working over lakes at 15 state parks throughout the Commonwealth. With the cooperation of the Fish Commission, the department says that at each location, improvements will be made to bathing and fishing facilities by grading and eliminating water hazards. Buoy lines and beach guard facilities are to be installed on completion of the grading operation. Chapman Dam is included among the bodies of water scheduled for such improvements.

In an effort to extend the turkey range in the Northwest portions of the state, T. A. Reynolds, division supervisor, Pennsylvania Game Commission, has announced the release of approximately 500 turkeys. The birds were hardened in pens located on State Game Lands in Venango County and distributed proportionately in each of the ten counties of the Northwestern Division. Each District Game Protector of the Division has previously chosen areas that he felt had the necessary requirements for this popular bird. The releases were in small numbers and well distributed. Individuals finding the birds are requested not to feed them or otherwise molest them. A difficult problem in successful wild turkey management is to keep the liberated birds wild enough. All counties of the state are open for the taking of turkeys this year. This season officially opens at 7 a. m. on Saturday, October 20th for turkeys, grouse and squirrel. Hunters are urged to read their hunting license certificates for other opening and closing dates.

★ EDSON IN WASHINGTON ★

Dmitri Shepilov Steps Into Center of U.N. Str

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The United States gets its first look at six-foot, 200-pound Dmitri Shepilov, the new Russian foreign minister, at the United Nations Security Council meeting on the Suez Canal crisis, in New York.

Shepilov is sized up as quite a different customer from Foreign Ministers Molotov and Vishinsky, Ambassadors Malik and Gromyko, with whom the U.S. has had to deal before.

Secy. of State John Foster Dulles, Undersecretary Loy Henderson and their staffs got the first measure of the man at the preliminary meeting of Suez Canal users in London last August.

Shepilov, on arrival in London, asked for a private meeting with Dulles before the conference began. They had two meetings, both short.

The main thing the Russian seemed anxious to put across was that he and Dulles should always be frank and earnest with each other, and not disguise their views.

Since U.S. and U.S.S.R. diplomats have always spoken in this vein, these ground rules added nothing new.

In the London meeting, Dulles and Shepilov had two showdowns.

THREE PLANS were put forward at this conference. One was the American plan for international operation of the Suez Canal. Another was the Indian plan providing for Egyptian operation, with international advisers. Third was Shepilov's plan to end the London conference and call a new one with more countries present. The Russian plan was not even considered, which was Shepilov's first defeat.

The idea behind the Indian plan was that V. K. Krishna Menon thought the Egyptians might accept it. He did not think Egypt would take the Dulles plan.

But 17 nations voted for the Dulles plan, and only five for the Indian proposal. Shepilov voted Russia with the five.

Later, however, Indonesia came in with a compromise which combined the U.S. and Indian proposals.

LOY HENDERSON was presiding when the crucial vote was taken. Dulles sat at the table whittling on a pencil, as he frequently does in conference. This doodling used to upset Molotov no end.

Keeping up his whittling, but not making many notes, Dulles innocently asked Henderson to review the situation as to where they stood. Henderson declared that all nations were in agreement on the compromise, except Russia. He then turned to Shepilov and asked him if that was correct.

The Russian said that it was—and thereby he stepped into a diplomatic hole deeper than the Suez Canal.

For it showed Russia all alone, without a single ally on this issue. And it revealed that the Russian purpose in attending the London conference was not to find a solution, but to wreck it.

MOLOTOV, in the opinion of the diplomats present, would never have allowed himself to be pushed into such a hole. It was lack of diplomatic experience on Shepilov's part. He is not dumb, and turning 51 on Nov. 4, he will probably be around for a long time.

He is a South Russian Cossack who joined the Communist secret police before he was 21. He was sent to school in Moscow and advanced rapidly. He caught Nikita Khrushchev's attention and became a political commissar in the Red army, rising to the rank of major general in World War II.

After postwar service in East Germany he became head of Russian propaganda and four years ago was made editor of Pravda. He was influential in swinging the Egyptian arms deal. Last February, on Molotov's retirement, he was made foreign minister.

She was escorted by her father and other members of the bridal party were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dumond, of Pomona.

Time Drawing Near For Opening Show By Warren Players

The 27th season of Warren Players Club will open October 18-19 with the production "Peg O' My Heart", directed by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Andersen.

The play, written by J. Hartley Manners, has quite an illustrious history, having been presented in all parts of the world, with a total of 10,233 performances to its credit. No doubt some will remember Laurette Taylor, who rose to stardom in 1912, in her unforgettable portrayal of Peg, the beautiful Irish lass whose flaming red hair matched her Irish temperament.

Louis Eyham, veteran Warren Player, will display an adopted Irish brogue as Peg in the Players' initial production for the new season.

Four newcomers will also make their debut in the oldest of the arts at the Woman's Club auditorium on the above dates: Bill Redin, teacher in Northern Area's new Eisenhower School, will portray Jarvis, the Chichester's butler; Sue Myers, Warren High student, plays Bennett, the maid, and Don Sagramoso, newcomer from Kane and another WHS student, will be seen as Alaric, Mrs. Chichester's son; Bill Campbell, in the role of Jerry, teaches at Beatty Junior High.

Mrs. Chichester, whom the public knows as Evelyn Donnelly, was seen last year as the nurse in "The Walrus and the Carpenter"; Jim Fales will play Brent; Ken Elington is Montgomery Hawkes, and Meredith Johnson returns to the stage as Ethel, Mrs. Chichester's daughter.

Warren Players Club is proud to present "Peg O' My Heart", a delightful three-act comedy of youth, as headliner for its 27th season of outstanding plays, and reminds that memberships are still available while reservations are being made for opening night.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN A. HENNESSY

White mums and gladioli, palms, and candelabra holding white tapers formed the setting in First Church of the Nazarene September 22 for the wedding of Rose Ann Sorensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sorensen, 320 Cobham Park road, and John A. Hennessy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hennessy, 100 Quaker road.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 7:00 p. m. by the Rev. John Z. Andree. Wedding music was by Miss Gladys Judd, church organist, and Andre Williams, singing "Because", "I Love You Truly" and, during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer."

Wearing slipper satin and chantilly lace, the bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Her gown was styled with a basque which buttoned up the back to an illusion neckline enhanced at the shoulder with a cuff of lace. Sleeves were long and tapered at the wrist, her full skirt fell over hoops and was frosted with inserts of the same lace which fashioned a bow on the cathedral train. A lace bonnet-style headpiece, edged with seed pearls, held her fingertip veil and her flowers were a cascade of pink rosebuds.

Attending her as maid of honor was Betty Ann Seagist, wearing a floor length gown of salmon color, with fitted bodice of lace and net skirt over taffeta, accented with rows of net down the back. A lace jacket, net mitts and matching headpiece completed her outfit and she carried chartreuse mums.

Bridesmaids for their sister were Joan Sorensen, gowned in yellow and carrying bronze mums; Mrs. Robert Still, in aqua with yellow mums. Their gowns were of net over taffeta, in a style matching that of the maid of honor. Flower girl was another sister, Julia, who wore floor length pink satin and net, with fitted bodice and full skirt over hoops, caught up in the front with flowers. Her headpiece was of matching net and she carried a basket of rose petals. White mitts and shoes with rosebuds completed her outfit, which was styled and made by her mother.

James Glans was best man for his brother-in-law; ushers were Leroy Sorensen, brother of the bride, and Fred Hennessy, Jr., cousin of the bridegroom.

Wearing a corsage of pink carnations, Mrs. Sorensen chose a navy blue sheath dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Hennessy selected a navy blue silk and lace dress, matching accessories and white carnations.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Servatius, Mrs. Gerald Shrub, Bradford; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson, Carl Anderson, Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, Cleveland; Mrs. Bernice Mines, Mrs. Jennie Davis, Wilcox.

The reception for 75 guests was held at the YWCA, where the table was centered with white tapers, attendants' and bride's bouquets, and a three-tiered wedding cake topped by miniature bride and groom. Baskets of white mums and gladioli were complementary decorations.

Aides were Sally Simonsen and Carol Simonsen; Mrs. Ivan Tuller and Mrs. Curtis Sorensen poured, while Mrs. Leroy Sorensen managed the guest book.

For travel, the bride selected a navy blue knit suit, red accessories and a carnation corsage.

The newlyweds are residing at 209 Canton street. The bride graduated from Warren High in 1955 and is employed by New Process Company. Her husband, WHS graduate in '51, served four years in the U. S. Air Force and is employed by United Refining Company.

Honoring the bride have been Mrs. Robert Still and Mrs. Ivan Tuller; Mrs. Leroy Sorensen and Mrs. Joseph Hennessy; Joan Sorensen; Mrs. Paul Moore, Mrs. Norman Huck, Mrs. Kenneth Hastings, Mrs. Kenneth Sorensen; Harriet Barnes, Ann Jubon and Mrs. Elmer Peterson.

Elections and Encouraging Reports Highlight Hospital Auxiliary Annual

The Women's Auxiliary of Warren General Hospital gets its new season off to a fine start as the result of a well-attended annual business meeting and tea held Friday afternoon in the doctors' library at the hospital.

Mrs. H. L. MacBride was re-elected president, heading a slate of officers consisting of Miss Mary Craft, Mrs. J. B. Leidig, Mrs. Edgar Pendleton, Mrs. Allan Branch, and Mrs. Albert Eberly.

Mrs. Allan Branch, in her secretary's report, showed 1,136 garments made, marked or mended for the hospital in 14 meetings which had an average attendance of 20; three special sewing meetings held for making 49 pinafores for Candy Strippers.

A reassuring report by Mrs. Leidig, treasurer, indicated over $3,000 disbursed for hospital needs and a balance of over $1,000. The 371 members of the Auxiliary have worked hard, long hours to make these purchases possible.

Mrs. Arthur O'Connor reported the Snack Bar lost $297 because of the March flood; also that all the Auxiliary's Christmas decorations used in decorating doors and corridors of the hospital were destroyed in the same flood. It was with pride, however, the Snack Bar presented to the general treasury a check for $2,114.70, representing its operation profits and designated for the purchase of air conditioning for the pediatrics ward.

For the Book Cart, Mrs. Margaret H. Lewis stated five volunteers made 4,208 bedside visits, distributing 5,206 books and 1,008 magazines; more volunteer help is needed; and book and magazine contributions will be welcomed.

Woman With the Steely Eyes Is Always an Enigma

YOU may see her anywhere—the woman with the steely eyes.

She may look right through you without a smile or a nod when you stop to hold a door for her because her arms are laden with bundles, or when you make room for her to sit beside you in a crowded waiting room.

She may take your money in a store or your order in a restaurant, those steely eyes saying quite plainly that for her you don't exist as a person.

She may be a receptionist in a fancy office. And she may act as though her job were to scare you out instead of to invite you in. She may be a guest who is busy looking for bigger game. Anyone less than a celebrity or the guest of honor, she looks through like a wall of glass.

She may be the woman to whom you have just acknowledged an introduction. Because your name doesn't ring a bell in her mind she scarcely seems to see you at all.

She may be a guest in your own home, coldly appraising everything in the house but scarcely seeing the people in it.

A WOMAN'S EYES SHOULD SHOW EMOTION

SHE may be a business woman, or a young girl, or a housewife, or an older woman.

But no matter who she is, all that you notice are those hard, steely, disinterested eyes.

A woman's eyes can reflect so much—the warmth of sympathy, the sparkle of laughter, the softness of compassion, the aliveness that comes from interest in others and the world about her. Why does any woman ever let her eyes draw a steely curtain between her and the rest of the world?

Teens

Pretty Nails

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

THE fingernail-biters aren't the only teen-agers who have difficulty keeping their nails pretty.

The first problem is that of cleanliness, so often the case with teen-agers just emerging from the tomboy stage.

Really dirty fingernails can't be scratched clean with a file. The scratches made on the surface of the nail so injure it that it will collect dirt twice as easily in the future.

Dirty nails, and hands, need to be scrubbed with a stout brush and lots of soap. A grubby bar soap (heavy duty) may be necessary after gardening, painting or work in clay. Soaking the hands a while in water and soap will make the task easier.

The next problem is nail length. It's generally conceded that talons are unattractive on teen-agers. But even if a girl disagrees, she ought to be careful about keeping her long nails the same length, neatly filed, and without split sides or hangnails. Polish, if a teen-ager wears it, can be another offense.

If a young woman hasn't time to repair and repolish her nails as often as it is called for, she ought to give up polish.

If her work or school duties cause the polish to chip or peel the next day and she is rushed every evening, she should give up the "beauty aid" that is no longer an aid, but a detriment.

Clean, short nails in good health may never make a girl a model, but they will certainly be more appreciated by her companions than long, dirty nails with peeling polish.

DRIVE CAREFULLY!

burden of a new, more costly building would fall upon property owners for the next 30 years at least. Noting that the previous site committee had not resolved the issue after two years, Keller appointed the following committee to study the site problems and perhaps come up with a "new slant": Wallace Cowden, Myron Jewell, Harry Chinnberg, Charles Frantz, Ernest Miller.

Mr. Whipple mentioned that he wanted to rent part of the Methodist Church basement for additional classrooms for the next three years at least. Mr. Keller said that with the addition of a fire escape the third floor of the present high school building could be used. No agreement was reached and this problem was tabled for further discussion.

son. He wound up with a season record of 10-6.

Kucks has appeared in two games, both times in relief, and has given up three hits and two runs in two innings.

It is extremely doubtful in fact, the odds are better than 40,000 to 1 against it that either of today's pitchers will duplicate Larsen's nerve-tingling epic that had every fan in the gathering of 64,519 hanging breathlessly on every pitch.

The Play-by-Play:

YANKIES FIRST
Bauer dropped a single behind second base. Collins grounded into a double play, Gilliam to Reese to Hodges. Gilliam threw out Mantle on a grounder. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

DODGERS FIRST
Gilliam grounded out to Martin. Reese struck out. Snider punched a single to left. Robinson was out on a liner to McDougald. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Two of the Leading Series Heroes Are In Judicial Hassles

New York (P)—Two World Series pitchers got into judicial hassles yesterday — one over support payments to his estranged wife and the other over a rhubarb with a heckler.

Shortly before Yankee Don Larsen pitched the first perfect game in series history, his wife got a State Supreme Court order designed to hold up his series money on the ground that he was $420 in arrears.

Dodger Don Newcombe was served with a simple assault summons obtained by a parking lot attendant who razed the big pitcher last Friday after the Yankees knocked him out of the box in the second series game at Ebbets Field.

Larsen's wife Vivian, 29, charged in court papers that he had subjected her and their 14-month-old daughter Carolyn Jean "to the pleasures of starvation existence."

A few hours after he had made baseball history at Yankee Stadium, the 27-year-old pitcher sent $420 to his wife's attorney Harry H. Lipsig.

Lipsig said the court order against Larsen — issued yesterday by Justice Samuel H. Hotstadter — would still have to be answered Monday.

Newcombe, 30-year-old Negro, is scheduled to appear in Flatbush Magistrate's Court Thursday on complaint of Michael Brown, 40, attendant at a parking lot outside Ebbets Field.

of the London proposals for Inter-said he would vote for the British-French plan.

Dulles spoke at the 11-nation council wound up its opening round of policy statements and prepared to go into closed-door sessions for detailed discussions.

Despite the apparent gap between the Western proposals and those of Egypt and the Soviet Union, Dulles told the council that the "possibilities are good" for a peaceful solution of the problem. Dulles said the debate in the council had been on the whole temperate and constructive, but that Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov had been responsible for some jarring notes.

He mentioned specifically Shepilov's charge that U.S. monopolies were trying to gain control of the Suez under the guise of giving financial aid for improving the waterway.

Dulles dealt at length with the proposals of the two London conferences of 18 nations during August and September.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi and Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov urged the council to establish a negotiating group to work out a system of cooperation which would protect Egypt's sovereignty and at the same time take into account the interests of the canal users.

Yugoslav Foreign Minister Koca Popovic, scheduled to speak after Dulles, was known to favor the idea of a negotiating committee. Iranian delegate Djalal Abdoh urged the council to try to avoid a vote on the British-French proposal and seek a solution by negotiation. Peru also favored negotiation.

Mrs. Roberts said she thought the other car was going to stop at the intersection. Instead it made a left turn directly in her path. The right front portion of the Derenski car and the left side of the other were badly damaged.

The scoreboard in background tells the story. That's Yankee second sacker Billy Martin behind Larsen.

Harry Campaigning in The Pittsburgh District

Pittsburgh, (P)—Former President Harry S. Truman says the Eisenhower administration and Republican congressmen have built up a "shameful record."

The former President made the statement here last night at a Democratic rally at which he charged the Eisenhower administration with "blocking badly needed" federal school aid.

Truman said Eisenhower, who is scheduled to deliver a major campaign speech here tonight, has resorted to "misrepresentation" in previous speeches and predicted he would have "some fables" to tell. The ex-President didn't elaborate.

In a whirlwind tour of this heavily industrialized area, Truman scheduled several "whistle stop" talks today along a motorcade route to Westmoreland County, where he is scheduled to address a Democratic rally tonight.

Two Persons Killed in Explosion in Milwaukee

Milwaukee (P)—An explosion in the boiler room at the Ampco Metals, Inc., office on the city's Southwest Side yesterday killed two and injured 19 persons.

Fire department authorities planned an investigation to determine the specific cause of the blast. Company officials said steam hissing from the boiler used in the building's hot water heating system indicated it may have become overloaded. The explosion tore out two floors in one corner of the glass block and brick buildings used by the firm as its general offices. The company makes castings for industry and does gas and extrusion welding.

Alaskan Election Result Is Watched for 'Trend'

Juneau, Alaska, (P)—Voters in this sprawling territory cast ballots today in an election that will test once more the adage: "As Alaska goes, so goes the nation."

Voters from Juneau to Nome, some 1,000 airline miles and three time zones apart, selected candidates in balloting that had the attention of stateside political trend-seekers.

Election eve appeals from President Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson attested to the status of an election Alaskans feel is an accurate barometer of things to come in the States.

Alaskans do not vote for president, and the delegate they send to Congress has a seat but no voice in the House. The "so goes the nation" adage stems from the outcome in recent years of contests for seats in the Territorial Legislature.

WIMMING ALONE

One of the most popular, and at the same time valuable, services of the YMCA to the children of our community is that of teaching them to swim. During the past ten years an average of over 300 boys and girls have learned the art of "being at home in the water" in the YMCA pool above, each year. Under patient instructors they have overcome the fear of the water, learned to use their arms and legs effectively in the water, and passed their test by jumping into the deep end of the pool and swimming to the shallow end, a distance of 50 feet. And are they happy when they make it the first time. Bob Hammerbeck, the "Y" swimming instructor, reports that the number of boys and girls passing this test since May 1st of this year is already nearing the 300 mark, indicating the increased interest in swimming in our community. If you would drop in to the YMCA any Thursday afternoon after school you would be thrilled by the large number of "mermaids" trying their skills in the water—the three classes now total about 100 girls each Thursday. Or go in any other afternoon or Saturday morning to see the large groups of boys enjoying the clear, clean water at just the right temperature for delightful swimming. And keeping the water just that way is one of the major concerns of the YMCA officials.

But swimming is only of the services of the YMCA in our community. Here, briefly, are a few more:

In the Boys' Department under the energetic leadership of Jeff Riedel many activities of proven worth are being continued from year to year such as the rifle clubs, archery clubs, craft classes, Gra-Y and Hi-Y Clubs, Friday evening movies, camping, game tournaments, etc., while many new programs are being introduced including the Adventure Club for boys, the Moms Club for Mothers of "Y" boys, and the Family Nights when the whole families of the boys can swim and play together now being held monthly. All these activities are conducted with the main purpose of the YMCA in mind, that of all-round development for boys in spirit, mind and body.

In the physical department, in addition to the swimming already mentioned, the program is geared to the development of the boys in skills which will help them prepare for the rigors of this present-day rapid pace of living. Basketball is one of the main features of the gymnasium program for juniors as well as young men. Volley ball for business men will again be occupying the gym most every afternoon following the boys classes, giving that group of business men the light exercise and friendly competition needed to keep them in trim for today's strenuous business world activities. And, back to the swimming pool for a moment, that popular spot also serves many other groups during the year including the boy scouts, "Y" Teens, handicapped children and the Red Cross life saving

Industrial Fires Hurt U. S.

A landmark in American industry went up when this Springfield, Ohio, plant was destroyed by fire earlier this year. This, reportedly, was the first sawtoothed-constructed industrial building in the world. Although exploding drums of flammable liquids and insufficient hydrants hampered fire fighting, these were not the principal reasons that the building was totally destroyed at a loss of $250,000. The fire chief on the scene explained it this way: "A one-story frame metal clad building without a watchman, sprinkler system or automatic fire alarm system—what can you expect?"

The National Fire Protection Association, sponsor of Fire Prevention Week this October 7-13, estimates that there were 37,600 manufacturing fires of all kinds last year that cost this country $188,674,000.

Teammates Praise Larsen as "A Swell and Friendly Guy"

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Brooklyn (AP)—A hundred and fifty years from now, and a hundred and fifty more, baseball fans will speak in awe of a tall, easy-going Scandinavian named Don Larsen who pitched the first perfect baseball game in the World Series.

What about this fellow, Larsen? "He loves his fun," says a New York Yankee teammate. "I don't guess he's one for keeping training and observing curfew. But he's one heck of a pitcher when he wants to be."

"He's been typed as strictly a playboy," says a baseball writer who traveled with the team all year. "You get the idea he is a wild roustabout who goes around busting up beer joints. That's not so at all. He has a devil-may-care attitude. He's a really swell friendly guy."

"This fellow is a good pitcher," says Casey Stengel, the Yankee manager. "Wonderful equipment and potentiality. I always felt he could do it if he set his mind to it."

On a chill, windy Monday, Oct. 8, 1956, Don Larsen set his mind to it—and made baseball history. Twenty-seven members of Brooklyn's fence-wrecking force walked to home plate at Yankee Stadium. Twenty-seven promptly walked back to the dugout—victim of Don's blazing fastball and tricky slider.

Larsen threw 97 pitches, 71 of them strikes. He got as many as three balls on only one player—Pee Wee Reese in the first inning.

Larsen, a 6-foot-4, 225-pound righthander, demonstrated a bit of his complex personality later when, pale and breathless, he answered machine-gun questions of his Herculean pitching feat.

Larsen told friends that he was so anxious to win in the World Series that he decided to start training hard. So he put himself on a schedule of no strong drink and early-to-bed.

He was disillusioned when he was shelled from the mound in the second inning of the second game, won by the Dodgers 13-8.

"That's the last time I'm going to bed early," he said. "I'm going back to enjoying life and nobody better stop me. I'm gonna win the next time and good times will roll."

GARDEN PARK OPENS

Camden, N. J. (AP)—Garden State Park opens its fall meeting today with 25 days of racing scheduled, including the world's richest horse race, the Garden State, worth between $250,000 and $300,000. Today's 9-race program will be topped by the Haddonfield Stakes, an overnight dash of 6 furlongs for 3-year-olds and up with a purse of $7,500.

Greatest Game Ever Ump Pinelli Says On "Bowing Out"

By JOE REICHLER
Brooklyn, (AP)—Don Larsen of the New York Yankees will never forget his history-making pitching performance against Brooklyn. Neither will Babe Pinelli, senior member of the National League staff of umpires. For it was Pinelli who umpired the first perfect game in World Series history—the last time Babe ever will work behind the plate.

"It was the greatest game I ever worked in," Pinelli said happily as he tried to relax in his dressing room after the game. "And it was also my last behind the plate. Yes, I'm through after this Series. Boy, what a way to bow out."

"It's unbelievable," he declared, "simply unbelievable. What a game, what a game. I never saw anything like it before. I umpired four no-hitters in regular season play but none of them compared to this. The strange thing about those no-hitters is that all were previously pitched by Dodger pitchers. Now I work a no-lutter pitched against the Dodgers—and a perfect game, at that. Boy, I'll have something to talk about and remember to my dying day. What a thrill. Nothing I ever saw could hold a candle to this one."

"I haven't missed a game since I came up to the National League in 1935. That's about 3,400 ball games in succession that I've umpired."

Miceli's Victory Over Giovanelli Crosses Up Bookies

By MURRAY ROSE
New York, (AP)—Some of the "smart money" bettors around the country must be checking on their sources of "information" today following Joe Miceli's victory over Danny Giovanelli.

From even money at noon the odds shot up to 4-1 favoring Giovanelli at fight time. And there were reports from out of town that bookmakers had taken the fight "off the boards." That means they had stopped taking bets because of one-sided betting and rumors.

If there was a betting coup in the making, Jolting Joe broke it up with his decisive unanimous decision in the telecast 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena last night.

Series Briefs

By ED CORRIGAN
Brooklyn, (AP)—Is big Don Newcombe annoyed at not being called on to pitch today's sixth World Series game against the New York Yankees? "Nope," he said in answer to the query. "I don't feel bad about not coming back... and I don't mind not being called as a pinch hitter (some say he's the best left-handed pinch hitter on the club)..."

I got no grudge with Manager Alston... He makes the decisions."

Alston's explanation for starting Clem Labine today instead of Newcombe: "Labine had good luck against the Yankees last year and this year when he was in Saturday... He threw in the bullpen a couple of innings yesterday, but he didn't get warmed up much."

Brooklyn's Gil Hodges, perhaps the gentlest player of either team despite his bulging muscles, has decided to do something about the pranksters who swipe his glove while he is taking batting practice... Now he carefully opens his shirt tucks the mitt inside, buttons the shirt, and begins swinging... Now Pee Wee Reese & Co are hunting for another victim.

Pittsburgh Manager Bobby Bragan on hand for the series trying to peddle Frank Thomas to the New York Giants for Johnny Antonelli... No soap... He would also like to slip Thomas to the Brooks, for, say, Sandy Amoros, Randy Jackson, Ed Roebuck and "another similar pitcher..." He guarantees Thomas would hit 40 home runs in Ebbets Field.

Duke Snider of the Dodgers is nearing a record for strikeouts. He has fanned seven times and the mark for a six-game Series is nine by Jim Bottomly of the Cards in 1930. The standard for a seven-game set is 10 by William Abstein of Pittsburgh in 1909.

Mickey Mantle needs only one homer to tie the all-time Series mark of four held by Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Snider. Gehrig hit four in four games while the Bambino and Snider each did it in seven games.

HUNTING KNIFE TIPS

THE LEATHER RINGS FOUND ON SOME KNIFE HANDLES, SHRINK AFTER BEING USED AWHILE. THEN THE RINGS LOOSEN AND SLIP...

OUT OF PLACE, TIGHTEN THE END SCREW TO TAKE UP THE SLACK. YOU CAN PREVENT MOST, IF NOT ALL, SHRINKAGE BY PERIODICALLY RUBBING IN WATERPROOF BOOT DRESSING—WARM IT SLIGHTLY SO IT PENETRATES THE LEATHER.

WHEN YOU BUY A KNIFE, GET ONE WITH A 4 1/2"-BLADE DESIGN—ED, LIKE THE ONE SHOWN ABOVE, FOR FIELD DRESSING AND SKINNING OF GAME. AVOID THE LONGER, ILL-BALANCED KNIFE BLADES. HEAT RUNS A BLADE'S TEMPER.

BE CAREFUL... DRIVE SAFELY!

NO-HIT SAVER—Andy (Carey) and Gil (McDougald) were terrific when they saved (Jackie) Robinson's ball from being a hit in the second inning. That's the play he's describing. The ball (arrow) glances off the outstretched glove of Andy Carey and into the hands of McDougald, just out of camera range, who fired to first to nip the flying Robinson.

BERR(A) HUG—Yankee catcher Yogi Berra jumps on and hugs Don Larsen after the towering Yankee hurler struck out Dodger pinch-hitter Dale Mitchell to complete a perfect, no-hit, no-run, no-man-reach-base game. Larsen is the first man to ever pitch a perfect game in World Series history, and the first to pitch a perfect game since Charles C. Robertson of the Chicago White Sox hurled one against the Detroit Tigers on Apr. 30, 1922. Larsen and Robertson won by identical scores, 2-0.

Oklahoma Is Still Nation's Number One College Team

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
By The Associated Press

Oklahoma still is the nation's No. 1 college football team, but some people are hard to convince.

After rolling up a 66-1 score against Kansas State, setting a major college record with their 32nd consecutive victory and making it 54 without a defeat against Big Seven Conference rivals, the Sooners retained their No. 1 rating in the Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters. But Michigan State continued to push for the top spot.

Oklahoma was first on 76 of 130 ballots Michigan State, a 9-0 winner over Michigan in the big game of the past weekend, drew 32 first-place votes.

In the point totals on the usual basis of 10 for each first-place vote, 9 for second, etc. Oklahoma piled up a 120-point margin, 1,185 to 1,065.

The also-rans were well behind and closely bunched. Georgia Tech led last Saturday, polled 793 points to hold third place and Texas Christian edged out Ohio State for fourth, 740-735. Then came

Tight House and Senate Races Will Decide Control of Congress

STATE SIDE ELECTIONS—Above Newsmap shows which states are holding senatorial and gubernatorial elections during 1956. Members of the Senate are elected for a six-year term, with 35 seats being contested for this year. Texas, which holds a gubernatorial election on Nov. 6, will have a senatorial contest later in the year. Sen. Price Daniel is running for governor, and has resigned his Senate seat. The gubernatorial election was held Sept. 10. Gov. Edmund Muskie (D) was re-elected.

HOUSE BATTLE—Four hundred and thirty-two Congressional districts will elect representatives to Congress on Nov. 6. Of these, 92 are in so-called marginal districts (see Newsmap) that were won in 1954 by 55 per cent of the vote or less. It is in these districts that the battle for House control will be fought. The Republicans have 61 doubtful seats to defend this year, almost twice as many as the Democrats, who have 31. The party that wins control of the House has won every presidential election except one (in 1918) since 1896. In 1952 with Eisenhower heading the ticket the GOP captured control of the House by seven seats, 222-215. Maine elected two Republicans and one Democrat this September.

SENATE RACES—Newsmap shows the 35 Senate seats at stake this year. Control of body rests on the outcome of 22 closely contested races. Eighteen of the 35 seats are now held by Democrats and 17 by Republicans. Nine of the Democrats' seats, mostly in the "solid South," are considered safe, the other nine are being seriously contested. On the GOP side only four—North Dakota, Kansas, New Hampshire and Vermont—are considered safe. The other 13 could go either way. Two states, Kentucky and South Carolina, will elect two senators each. A 36th seat will go on the auction block later in the year. Sen. Price Daniel, Democratic nominee for governor of Texas, has resigned his Senate seat effective upon election of a successor.

THESE MARKS ARE LEGAL

THESE MARKS VOID A BALLOT

MAKE YOUR MARK COUNT

In each election, many voters cheat themselves of the right to have their voices heard by marking their ballots incorrectly. If a voter marks his ballot illegally, his vote is void.

NOV. '56

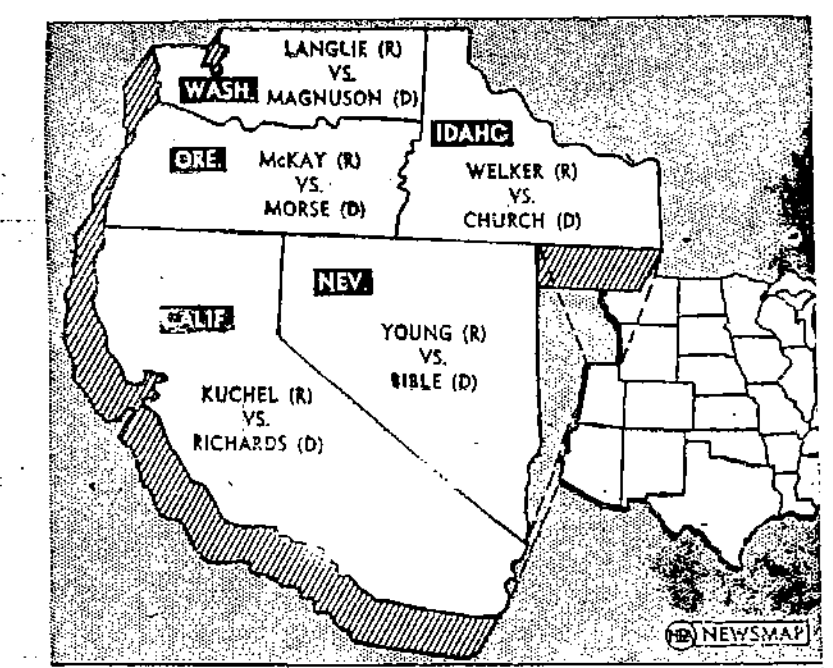

SUN MON TUE WED

11 12 13 14

REMEMBER THIS DATE—Tuesday after the first Monday in November is general election day in the United States. All 48 states will conduct presidential balloting on Nov. 6. Don't forget to vote.

WERE YOU MISSING?—only 61 per cent of the adult population exercised their voting rights in the last presidential election. The important issue is not for whom you vote, but rather that you DO VOTE.

GOP TROUBLE SPOTS—Republican chances to recapture control of the Senate ride on the outcome of tight races in the five states shown on Newsmap. GOP leaders are confident that President Eisenhower will carry all five, but view the Senate contests as tough "horse races." The GOP's best prospects, these leaders say, are to hold Senate seats in California and Idaho. In the other three states GOP candidates appear to be running uphill against Democratic incumbents. The bitterest Senate fight in the nation will be in Oregon where Sen. Wayne Morse, Republican-turned-Democrat, faces the Eisenhower-endorsed former interior secretary, Douglas McKay.

ELECTION RESULTS OF 1952—Above Newsmap shows how the various states voted in the last presidential election. President Eisenhower carried 39 of the 48 states as he rolled up 442 electoral votes with Democrat Stevenson receiving but 89 electoral votes. Note that Ike captured four "Solid South" states. The Republicans expect to retain control of the White House in 1956 but indications are that the election will be much closer than in 1952.

MAKING THE SHOE FIT—Republican campaign headquarters in Washington, D.C., pulls a switch on the famous Stevenson hole-in-the-sole shoe symbol with a window banner which proclaims: "Don't let this happen to YOU!" It's right next door to the District of Columbia Club's Stevenson-Kefauver headquarters. Republican National Committee workers Jane Kottmeier, on ladder, and Jane Owen wear their best "Ike" dresses to preview banner for photographers.

Presbyterian Women Are Planning Farmers' Mart

An old fashioned farmers' Market is being planned for October 18 by the Presbyterian Women's Association and co-chairmen, Mrs. A. Follmer Yerg and Mrs. James Kannen, promise the public they will have for sale all types of foodstuffs and handmade articles. These things will be displayed in wagons on the lawn of the church and in the driveway off Market street.

Starting at 10:30 in the morning, a booth will serve hot dogs, hamburgers, ice cream, and pop to all comers. One wagon will sell handmade Christmas decorations and another will have second hand Halloween costumes, pumpkins, masks and other things the small fry will want for Halloween. The committee will appreciate donations of outgrown costumes from anyone who has them.

The biggest item for sale, as in any Farmers' Market, is, of course, food. Delicious cakes, cookies, casseroles, delicatessen items, and homemade jams, jellies, and pickles will be featured.

All these and many other items will be displayed for the discerning customer and shoppers are urged to place immediately on their calendars a reminder that October 18 is Farmers' Market Day.
